

Why is Travel Training important?

Travel training teaches me to be independent.

Independence helps me to be confident at doing things by myself.

Travel training can help me when I am older.

If I need to travel to work I can do this by myself.

Travel training can help me to have fun!

If I want to meet up with friends I am able to do this by myself.

Travel Training at Woodlane High School

What is Travel Training?

Travel training teaches me how to travel independently.

Who teaches me Travel Training?

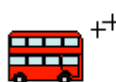

I will learn travel training from an adult who is my travel trainer.

This means using public transport such as buses and trains.

My travel trainer will travel with me and show me how to travel independently.

If I complete travel training I will be able to travel by myself.

When I am confident and my travel trainer thinks I am ready I will start travelling by myself.
